OAKFIELD CAPITAL PARTNERS LEADS FOLLOW-ON INVESTMENT IN THE DOCTORS CLINIC GROUP

Oakfield Capital Partners is pleased to announce a follow on equity investment in The Doctors Clinic Group (DCG)⁽¹⁾. The company provides affordable and easy access for individuals, corporates and insurers to private GPs across 15 clinics in Greater London. DCG's services include consultations, health screens, blood tests, diagnostics and some common secondary care pathways. The investment supported the acquisition of Maitland Medical, an occupational health provider, as part of the company's strategy to become a national healthcare services platform in the UK.

Maitland Medical, based in Kent, has a strong team of occupational health specialists delivering tailored, high quality clinical advice and support. Julie Michalski, Managing Director said, "Our entire team at Maitland and our new colleagues are excited to share strongly aligned values and begin to focus on the additions we can make to all of the services we offer".

Dave Mezher, CEO, said, "Combining The Doctors Clinic Group with Maitland Medical's capabilities as an occupational health provider, gives us a unique, world class proposition to help our customers' to keep their employees in the best of health. We are very grateful to the support that Oakfield Capital provided to DCG and Maitland throughout this transaction".

Alexander Bezugly, Oakfield Partner, said, "We see the acquisition of Maitland as a major step in developing a national healthcare services platform for individuals, corporate customers and insurers and are delighted that key members of the management team at Maitland Medical are joining The Doctors Clinic Group".
